

My Cat

Soft and purry, very furry, my Cat
I just can't live without that
Like a Teddy Bear, but with more hair
Fun little thing, playful joy, my Cat

Trusty instinct, clever sense
The one that loves me most I guess
And I guess I know who to love, my Cat

I could never Kevorkian my Cat
Never let her choke on a rat
I would never let her,
From tires get flat
And that is all there is to that

When dogs are around, I'll just say "scat", for my Cat
I guess you know where my heart is at There's something that I love about that Goddamn I love that Cat!
