Class expectations:

This class is a graduate-level learning experience and students are expected to participate in a manner that allows them to master the content. Late arrival is not acceptable as it is disruptive to the students who have arrived on time. Class time will be spent to allow students synthesis of new concepts presented in the theory of learning organizations.

All assignments are due by the date listed in the syllabus and course outline. Following an excused absence (see the student rule handbook for a complete description), students may turn in late work according to the university policy. For non-university excused absences, late work will be accepted up to 3 class days past the due date and will be penalized 10%/day.

Additional Information

AGGIE HONOR CODE: "An Aggie does not lie, cheat, or steal or tolerate those who do." Upon accepting admission to Texas A&M University, a student immediately assumes a commitment to uphold the Honor Code, to accept responsibility for learning, and to follow the philosophy and rules of the Honor System. Students will be required to state their commitment on examinations, research papers, and other academic work. Ignorance of the rules does not exclude any member of the TAMU community from the requirements or the processes of the Honor System. Explanation of Assignments

S.A.C. Cards:

At the beginning of designated weeks (on Monday mornings), students prepare a 1-2 sentence SYNTHESIS, ANALYSIS, OR CRITIQUE (S.A.C.) of the material covered during the previous week. Your assignment is to summarize the S.A.C. statements and submit those summaries to the lead professor. You will also be providing each student in your Learning Community an assessment of the quality of their comments. Summaries are entered into your Final Portfolio. 5 cards @ 10 points each = 50 points

Learning Community Teaching Day: Each of the 5 members of your Learning Community is responsible for teaching one of the 5 Learning Organization Disciplines. The lead professor provides the training for the assigned teachers. Your assignment is to observe the assigned teacher and collect their materials for inclusion in your Final Portfolio. 5 Teaching Observations @ 10 points = 50 points

Learning Community Teacher Evaluation:

To apply the concepts generated in this course, small, 5-person learning communities are utilized. Each member of the learning community will facilitate the discussion linking one of the 5 Learning Organization Disciplines with a selected chapter(s) from Good to Great. After each of the Learning Community Lessons, the instructor is evaluated by the students. Your assignment is to provide an overall evaluation of the Learning Community's assessment of the assigned teacher. Include in your Final Portfolio examples of excellent Learning Community Teacher Evaluations. 4 evaluations @ 25 points each = 100 points

Learning Community Reflection:

How has the learning community enhanced your learning? For this assignment, you evaluate the concepts, ideas, and activities used by the Learning Community. Following your assessment of the Learning Community Reflection, in consultation with the lead professor, you reinforce the positive aspects and plan corrective activities to benefit your learning. Your Learning Community Reflection is included in your Final Portfolio. 50 points

Application Accountability:

4 times during the semester you will assess the appropriate responses of students' preparation for class discussion. The Application Activities are provided by the lead professor; your assessment will be provided to the students in your Learning Community. Copies of the Application Activities are included in your Final Portfolio. 4 application activity assessments @ 50 points each = 200 points

Tests:

Create 2 review activities that student can use in preparation for their 2 mid term examinations. This review activity will be used with your Learning Community. Copies of your Reviews are submitted as a part of your Final Portfolio. 2 reviews @ 250 points each = 500 points

Final Portfolio:

Create a collection of the notes from the class. Include theory and teaching practice so that you may use this portfolio in future teaching or training experiences. Total = 300 points
