

Wednesday, February 6 1991

Ada F. Smallwood

Mrs. Ada Frankie Smallwood, 64, of MacArthur, died Monday, Feb. 4, at 10:09 p.m., in a Oak Hill hospital, following a long illness.

Born Oct. 19, 1926, at Tollytown.

Mrs. Smallwood was a homemaker, was of the Protestant faith and was a 31-year resident of MacArthur.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frederick Wallace Smallwood in 1970 and a granddaughter, Fonda Whittaker.

Survivors include her loving children: three sons, Edward Carman and his wife, Linda Carman of Beckley, Darrell Carman and his wife, Virginia Carman of Charlotte, N.C. and John Smallwood and his wife, Linda Smallwood of MacArthur; three daughters, Glorinda Roles and her husband, Richard Roles and Mary Fox and her husband, Gary Fox, all of Beckley and Shelia Kourakis of Cave City, Ark.; 13 grandchildren, Edward Carman III, Lisa Clyburn, Ross Carman, Chrissie Carman, Stephanie Roles, Terri Fox, Michelle Bailes, Christie Carman, Tabatha Carman, Michael Whittaker, Shaun Whittaker, Tony Whittaker and Kimberly Anderson, and five great-grandchildren.

Services will be Thursday, 1 p.m., at the Rose and Quesenberry Peace Chapel, Beckley, with Dr. Ellis E. Conley officiating. Burial will be in the Blue Ridge Memorial Gardens, Prosperity.

Friends may call today from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Rose and Quesenberry Funeral Home, Beckley.