Agnes M. Bowling

Mrs. Agnes Mae Bowling, 70, of 116 Wildwood Avenue, Beckley died Thursday, July 28, at 4:15 a.m., at a Beckley hospital following a short illness.

Born April 3, 1918, at Beaver, she was the daughter of the late Gilbert and Myrtle Adkins Pack.

Mrs. Bowling was a homemaker, life-long resident of Raleigh County and a member of the Hilltop Baptist Church at Crab Orchard.

For the past eight years she had a broadcast radio program "The Answer"

over WBKW, she was the teacher of the Dorcas Sunday school class at the church and conducted many ladies seminars dealing with Bible teachings in Southern West Virginia and surrounding states.

Mrs. Bowling was a former employee of the Singer Co. and J.C. Penney Co., she attended BIOLA (Bible Institute of Los Angeles), Trinity College of Florida and Appalachian Bible College at Bradley, and had an active ministry at Pine Lodge Health Care Center.

Survivors include her husband, E. Clyde Bowling; a son, Rev. David Bowling of Chattanooga, Tenn.; a daughter, Mrs. Larry (Sharon K.) Daugherty of Kingsport, Tenn.; a brother, Roy Pack of Beaver; a sister, Beulah Simmons of Tucson, Ariz., and nine grandchildren.

Services will be Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Hilltop Baptist Church at Crab Orchard with the Rev. Lewis Batchelor officiating. Entombment will be in the Blue Ridge Memorial Gardens Mausoleum at Prosperity.

Friends may call today from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Melton Mortuary in Beckley and at the church one hour prior to the services.

AFTER GLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

*I'd like to leave an after glow
of smiles when life is done,*

*I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.*

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun*

of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
