Betty C. Farley

Betty C. Farley, 58, of Shady Spring, died at her home Saturday, March 31, 2001, at 3:55 a.m. following a long illness.

Born Jan. 14, 1943, in Havre, Mont., she was the daughter of Eliza Stanley Bahr of Ashland, Mont., and the late William Bahr.

Farley

Mrs. Farley was a homemaker and a graduate of New Mexico State University, and The College of West Virginia, having received a master's degree in cultural arts. She had been a resident of Shady Spring for the last 20 years, having lived most of her life in Montana and New Mexico.

Other survivors include her husband, Alvin Farley; one son, Brenden Farley and wife, Sylvia, of Las Cruces, N.M.; two daughters, Julee Duhrsen and husband, Jeff, of Anchorage, Alaska, and Lisa Lopez and husband, Gary, of Japan;

one brother, Lester Bahr of Ashland, Mont.; six grandchildren, Monica, Sarah and Ryan Farley, Vanessa Duhrsen and Ashley and Joshua Lopez.

Memorial service will be 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Rose and Quesenberry Funeral Home Shady Spring Chapel with the Rev. George Speck officiating.

There will be no visitation. In lieu of flowers, donations of sympathy may be made to the Hospice of Southern West Virginia, P.O. Box 1472, Beckley, WV 25801, in memory of Mrs. Farley.

Arrangements by Rose and Quesenberry Funeral Home, Shady Spring.

AFTERGLOW

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering
softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.*
