

Dr. G. Elmo Renegar

Dr. G. Elmo Renegar, went home to heaven on Saturday, May 8, 2005, at 10:34 a.m. at the Beckley Appalachian Regional Hospital following a short illness.

He was the pastor of Clifftop Missionary Baptist Church in Beaver for 16 years.

Renegar

Dr. Renegar was born May 29, 1917, in Surry County, N.C., to the late Charles Lee and Lela Hardy Renegar. He graduated from Franklin High School, where he played on the Championship Basketball Team. Dr. Renegar was a graduate of Guilford College with a B.A. degree, Piedmont Baptist College with a Th.B., and Berean School of Theology with a Master of Theology and a Doctorate of Theology.

Dr. Renegar pastored churches in North Carolina, Illinois and West Virginia, and served on several missions and college boards, some of which he was president for several years.

He was a precious man of God, who had influenced many people. He was a man of character, integrity and holiness. His memory lives on with us today.

Survivors include his sisters, Mozelle Renegar Morrison of Hampton, Va., and Geraldine Renegar Draughn and husband, Edgar, of Atlanta, Ga.; sisters-in-law, Pansy Renegar of Charlotte, N.C., and Nelta Renegar of Clemmons, N.C.; four nephews; five nieces; three great-nephews and eight great-nieces.

Service will be 2 p.m. Wednesday at Rose and Quesenberry Peace Chapel in Beckley, with the Revs. Billy Seats and Eddie Flowers officiating.

Graveside rites and burial will be 2 p.m. Thursday at Mt. Herman Baptist Church Cemetery near Dobson, N.C.

Friends may call from 6 to 9 p.m. today at Rose and Quesenberry Funeral Home, Beckley.

Nephews will serve as pallbearers.

II Timothy 4:6-8

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
