

Helmondollar

Coal Co. and the town of Sophia.

Jack was preceded in death by two brothers, Eddie Helmondollar and the Rev. Jim Helmondollar; and a sister, Evelyn Helmondollar.

Those left to cherish his memory are his loving wife, Mary Helmondollar; his wonderful children, the Rev. Daniel Helmondollar and wife, Carol, of Beckley, the Rev. Vickie Buzminsky and husband, Michael, of Crab Orchard, John Helmondollar and wife, Debbie, of Crab Orchard and Lisa Thurman and husband, David, of Crab Orchard; his life-long friends and siblings, Elzie Helmondollar and wife, Glorine, of Princeton, Virginia Moran of Crab Orchard and Leo Helmondollar and wife, Charlene, of Beckley; his seven precious grandchildren, April, Chad, Bryan, Stacy, Heather, Mandie and Matthew; three step-grandchildren he loved as his own, Billy, Greg and Brittany; and three great-great grandchildren, Blake, Adriana and Ethan; and two special sister-in-laws, Ruth Helmondollar and Ramona Helmondollar.

Jack will be sadly missed by all, especially his brothers and sisters in the Lord.

Service will be 1 p.m. Monday at Blue Ridge Funeral Home Chapel, Beckley, with the Bishop Clarence Lee officiating, assisted by Bishop Robert Day. Entombment will follow in Blue Ridge Memorial Gardens, Beckley.

Grandsons serving as pallbearers are Jason Stone, Chad Buzminsky, Bryan Meadows, Matthew Stocks, Greg McClanahan and Kevin Wills.

A gathering to celebrate his life and memory will be 6 to 9 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Arrangements by Blue Ridge Funeral Home, Beckley.