

Mary M. Vaught

Mrs. Mary M. Vaught, 72, of Crab Orchard, died Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1992 in a Beckley hospital.

Born April 11, 1920, at Crab Orchard, she was the daughter of the late Benjamin and Betty Terry Pittman.

Mrs. Vaught was a member of the Hilltop Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lester Vaught, in 1978.

Survivors include a daughter, Patricia Swift of Coal City; two sons, Lester H. and his wife Mary Ellen Vaught of Crab Orchard and Ronald and his wife Brenda Vaught of Sophia; five sisters, Victoria Hughes of Crab Orchard, Cassie Pruet of Beckley, Beulah Acord of Melbourne, Fla., Dollie Graybeal of Midway and Louella Hill of Norfolk, Va.; five grandsons, and one great-grandchild.

Vaught

Services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at the Blue Ridge Funeral Home Chapel, Prosperity, with the Rev. Wayne Holder officiating. Burial will follow in the Sunset Memorial Park, Beckley.

Friends may call from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Pallbearers will be J.C. Lambert, Ron Lilly, James Thomas, Bob Slate, Marvin Lively, Roger Fox, Marvin Proffitt and Fred Cassity.

Arrangements by Blue Ridge Funeral Home, Prosperity.