

Paul Hunt

Paul Hunt, 89, of Crab Orchard died Wednesday, Feb. 10, 1999, at his residence of natural causes.

Born Oct. 4, 1909, in Blue Jay, he was the son of the late John William and Emma Lilly Hunt.

Mr. Hunt worked for Lillybrook Coal Co. for two years, Gulf Mining Co. for 25 years, Crab Orchard Water Co. for 26 years, and was self-employed since 1975 as a plumber until his retirement.

Hunt

He was a member of Crab Orchard Missionary Baptist Church since 1932 and faithfully attended the Fellowship Sunday School Class, was a member of the Crab Orchard/MacArthur Lions Club and a member of Beckley Moose Lodge 1606.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Howard Hunt, William "Bill" Hunt and Lloyd Hunt.

Survivors include his wife of 58 years, Velva Arlene Hunt; a son, James Michael Hunt and his wife, Margaret, (Miller) of Crab Orchard; three grandchildren, Jason Paul Hunt and his wife, Christina, of California and Sarah Ann Hunt and Travis Ryan Hunt, both of Crab Orchard; and two great-grandchildren, Logan and Lacey of California.

Services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at Crab Orchard Missionary Baptist Church with the Rev. Phillip Shields officiating. Entombment will follow in Blue Ridge Memorial Gardens Chapel of Peace. Music will be provided by the Crab Orchard Baptist Choir.

Friends may call 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday at the church.

Pallbearers will be Robert Skiles, Richard "Pete" Graham, Ray Yates, John Tolley, Ray Looney and Russell Schlenker.

Arrangements by Calfee Funeral Home, Beckley.