

Virgil J. Lawson

LINDSIDE — Virgil J. Lawson, 81, passed away Tuesday, July 16, 2002, at Princeton Community Hospital.

Born May 28, 1921, at Ellison, he was the son of the late Samuel J. and Romanza Lilly Lawson.

Mr. Lawson was a member of the Full Gospel Assembly Church in Peterstown, formerly employed by DNR, had worked in the coal mines, was an ordained minister and enjoyed hunting and fishing.

He was a World War II U.S. Army Air Corps veteran and had worked for the Mercer Anglers Club for 23 years.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia Bragg Lawson; two sons, Ronald Waddell and his wife, Patty of Peterstown and Gary Derfun of Lindside; two daughters, Nellie Grimmett of Cashmere and Vera Bennett and her husband, P.J. of Peterstown; a brother, Clowney Hatcher of Princeton; two sisters, Myrtle Bragg and her husband, Melby of Shady Spring and Sylvia Clyburn of Stanaford Acres; 10 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren.

Services will be 1 p.m. Friday at the Full Gospel Assembly Church with the Rev. Don Lucas officiating. Burial will follow in the Restwood Memorial Gardens, Hinton.

Friends may call 6 to 9 p.m. today at Broyles-Shrewsbury Funeral Home Chapel, Peterstown, and one hour before the service Friday at the church.

Arrangements by Broyles-Shrewsbury Funeral Home, Peterstown.