

To promote the Central Texas Bluegrass Association

Join the CTBA at <http://centraltexasbluegrass.org>

Bluegrass Workshops

presented by Randy's Rangers, CTBA band member – Sponsored by JRF <http://jrfnet.net>

"How To Be a Better Musician"

Emphasis on practical theory application. Learn why you play what you play and how to build on your knowledge.

Guitar – Mandolin – Fiddle – Banjo – Bass – Vocal

Intermediate & Advanced - 4 sessions each

These are hands-on workshops! Bring your instrument.

Sundays in September, 6th, 13th, 20th, 27th 2009, noon to 2pm before the jam at Artz Rib House in Austin.

Intermediate is noon to 1pm, advanced is 1 to 2 pm, preregistration required – please call Sigi at 512-869-8076 or email bluegrass@suddenlink.net . See <http://jrfnet.net/rr>

Free for CTBA members - $10/session non-members

Intermediate- requires Am, Bm, Dm chords

- Circle of 5ths
- Standard song progressions
- Chord change anticipation
- Accompaniment
- Intro to soloing
- 3 standard bluegrass songs

Advanced- requires Bflat, Gm, F# chords

- Order of sharps & flats
- Scales and chord forms for closed positions
- building solos
- on-the-fly transposition
- transcription from records
- 3 “pro” songs

Please come to the Bluegrass jam at Artz Rib House every Sunday and Duke's BBQ in Georgetown Thursdays at 6pm
Great food at great prices, Artz has the best ribs in town and Duke's Red Neck Plate - $6 for meat, beans, drink & ice cream.